

Sophie [REDACTED]

Sophie is a studious student and valued member of the Wellbeing Group. She is to be congratulated on her continued excellent grades in her subjects, particularly her outstanding Science results this Semester. Sophie has contributed well throughout the year to Mock Trials, and it is nice to see her commitment to community outside of the school as a volunteer assistant at Vinnies. It has been particularly pleasing to hear about her passions for reading and book choices during Wellbeing time, and Sophie demonstrates great articulation and understanding of classic texts in discussion with her peers. I wish Sophie all the best for next year.

Matilda [REDACTED]

Matilda is a sociable member of the Wellbeing Group who served this term as Deputy Wellbeing Captain. She is to be congratulated for maintaining impressive results in her classwork this Semester, and achieving beyond her expectations in some subjects. I have enjoyed watching Matilda's participation in year group sports activities, and glad to see her awarded a Gold Bar for her contribution to Basketball this year. I wish Matilda all the best for her continued progress in 2021.

Ashley [REDACTED]

Ashley is a courteous and thoughtful member of the Wellbeing Group. She is to be commended for her continued focus on her studies, resulting in some outstanding marks this Semester. Ashley is to be congratulated especially on her 100% result for her Denim Design task in Textiles Technology. Her contribution to the School has been admirable, earning her a Gold Bar for her efforts in both Netball and Basketball. I wish her all the best for 2021.

Zoe [REDACTED]

Zoe is a courteous and considerate member of the Wellbeing Group, always thinking of her peers. She has demonstrated outstanding leadership this year and it has been a pleasure to interact with her during Wellbeing time. Zoe is to be congratulated on her continued excellence across the board academically, showing great commitment to her studies. Her broad contribution to the School community is worth acknowledgement, with her involvement in numerous cocurricular activities. She is to be commended for achieving One Band for her efforts in Rowing, Cadets and Bell Ensemble, and Two Bands for her work as a Sacristan. I wish Zoe the very best for 2021.

[REDACTED]

Leyna is a polite and friendly student and a delight to have in the Wellbeing Group. She is to be commended for her continued focus on her studies, resulting in some outstanding marks this Semester. Leyna is to be congratulated especially on her 100% result for her Denim Design task in Textiles Technology. It has been a pleasure to see her contributions as a Sacristan, particularly her duties on St Hilda's Day, and Leyna is well-deserving of the Two Bands award received for her commitment to this role. Her contributions to the School community in other areas are also highly valued, and I was pleased to see her awarded Gold Bar for Rowing, and One Band for her achievements so far for the Duke of Edinburgh. I am glad to see her working on pursuing the Silver Award for this activity. I wish Leyna the very best for 2021.

Isabella [REDACTED]

Isabella has been a delight to work with this year and a valued member of the Wellbeing Group, stepping up as a strong leader in her role as Wellbeing Captain this Semester. I have been impressed to see her increased application to her studies, and she is to be commended for some excellent results this Semester. She has balanced involvement in a variety of School cocurricular activities well, especially her contribution to Drama in the Major School Production and for the Year 7 & 8 Play, and she is to be congratulated for achieving a One Band award for her efforts. I wish Isabella the very best for 2021.

Indiana [REDACTED]

Indiana is a polite student and a valued member of the Wellbeing Group. She has been quietly focused this Semester, and is to be commended for achieving some very good academic results, especially for Maths, Science, and Food Science and Technology. Indiana is to be congratulated for her One Band award received for her contributions to Swimming, and her commitment to the IGSSA Water Polo is to be praised. I wish Indiana all the best for her future studies.

Abigail [REDACTED]

Abigail is a pleasant student and a valued member of the Wellbeing Group. She has continued to apply herself to her studies this Semester, and I hope she is proud of what she has achieved. I have been pleased to see her interests expand in the cocurricular offerings, with Abigail taking part in the K-Pop Club in addition to her usual participation in Water Polo. I wish Abigail all the best for 2021.

Stephanie [REDACTED]

Stephanie is a courteous and friendly member of the Wellbeing Group. She continues to apply herself to her studies, and her positive attitude will stand her in good stead next year. I recommend she avails herself of the support available from staff in the Tutoring Centre to assist her in achieving her best in 2021. Stephanie is to be congratulated on the recognition of her cocurricular contributions, being awarded a Gold Bar for Drama and One Band for Rowing. It was wonderful to watch her take part in the Contemporary Theatre event at Arts Festival in Term 3 as well. Stephanie has been a pleasure to teach, and I wish her the very best for her future studies.

Matilda [REDACTED]

Matilda is a friendly, thoughtful member of the Wellbeing Group. She has applied herself well to her studies this Semester and is to be congratulated for some very good marks, particularly her high result for her Maths final exam. It has been pleasing to see her awarded One Band for her contributions to Soccer this year. It would be nice for her to take part in more cocurricular activities again in 2021. I wish Matilda all the best for her future studies.

Bridie [REDACTED]

Bridie is a delightful student with a courteous and positive nature. She has continued to show dedication and persistence with her studies, and is to be congratulated on her good grades for this Semester. Bridie may consider adjusting her schedule next year so that she can access the Tutoring Centre for the extra staff support in achieving her best in her ATAR subjects. Her extensive cocurricular commitment for Music is impressive, and I have been glad to hear how much she enjoys participating in these ensembles. It was pleasing to see her awarded for her contributions, receiving a Gold Bar for Chorale, and One Band for String Orchestra, Symphony Orchestra and Concert Band. Bride has been a pleasure to have in the Wellbeing Group, and I wish her the very best for 2021.

[REDACTED]

Scarlette is a delight to have in the Wellbeing Group. She has continued to approach her studies with determination and should be proud of the consistent and very good results received, particularly her achievement of the highest score for the year group on her Maths Test 3. It was pleasing to see Scarlette's awards added to this semester, with her receiving a Gold Bar for her contribution to Basketball. I wish Scarlette the very best for next year.

Mia [REDACTED]

Mia has been a delightful addition to the Wellbeing Group and the St Hilda's community. She has shown dedication to her studies and should be proud of the achievements she has made academically this year. Mia has contributed extensively to the School community, and her involvement in cocurricular offerings is extensive. It was pleasing to see her acknowledged for her efforts this Semester, being awarded a Gold Bar for Athletics and Drama, and One Band for Basketball and Cross Country. Mia has been a pleasure to teach this year and I wish her the very best for her future studies.

Sophie [REDACTED]

Sophie is a delightful student and a valued member of the Wellbeing Group. She has applied herself to her studies with dedication, and should be proud of her very good achievements this Semester, particularly her high marks in her Maths Investigation 2 and Biology 2 Topic Test. It has been good to see her continue to take part in some Sport cocurricular offerings. She may find it exciting to expand her interests next year. I have very much enjoyed teaching Sophie, and I wish her all the best for her future studies.

Shania [REDACTED]

Shania is a kind and thoughtful student and I have enjoyed taking her in Wellbeing. It is pleasing to see her good results in Design and Textiles Technology, and I hope she pursues this further. I encourage her to continue working in her other subject choices next year, and utilise the assistance offered by staff to ensure she achieves to her best. Shania may benefit taking part in some of the cocurricular offerings in her subject interests to broaden her experiences. It has been a pleasure getting to know Shania and I wish her the best for 2021.
